OUR STORY

Believing in anything requires a leap of faith.

In 1998, Mitchell Harvey took that leap when he first opened the doors of Mitchell's Coffeehouse. Mitchell always knew he would be in business for himself, and his perseverance is what fuels Lakeland's original downtown coffeehouse today. Mitchell was determined to offer the best gourmet coffee and espresso drinks, to serve a delicious breakfast and lunch, and bake homemade, outrageously good desserts. The spacious coffeehouse reflects the history and character of downtown Lakeland and supports local artists by rotating artwork on its walls monthly. It is run by Mitchell, his wife Michelle, and their two sons, little Mitchell and Matthew. Mitchell's is a place where you walk in, and the friendly artisans know you by name.
